INTRODUCING IRIS

IRIS is a multitasking pleasure object, graceful and uncomplicated in appearance, yet powerful and skilful in her pleasuring performance. A set of two individually balanced vibrator engines, operating in harmony, provides the basis for deep and sensual rubdowns. The intuitive interface dial, responsive to the slightest whim, facilitates exact intensity and stimulation control, whilst the ergonomically designed stem stays intimately in touch with all those special places.

As is befitting a state-of-the-art boudoir companion, IRIS is rechargeable and exceedingly quiet. Comes accessorised with gift box, charger (country-specific), user manual, satin pouch and a 1-year LELO warranty.
